The testimony taken by Coroner LEVY at killed in the darkness of the Fourth Avenue Tunnel on Feb. 20, will be presented to the Grand Jury on Monday of next week, and it is to be hoped that that body will so deeper into the question than did the Coroner's jury. The most important point to be considered is that the tunnel on that fav was so thick with smoke and vapor that the engineer of the New Haven local train could not see the shop train until the ectual contact took place. This conwith the fact that a similar scaldent had happened under like Central Railroad had been warned by another Grand Jury to ventilate and light the tunnel lest other lives be lost, and that penetre is paid no attention to this warning, gives the present Grand Jury good grounds for quest is aware why blame to the New York Central was left out of the verdict, and how the New Haven directors, who was builtd pollucians were at work about his are in no way responsible for the condition of the tunnel, were made the scapegoats. It is also a fact that the of its own about Mr. Parnell's recent and fre-Coroner's jury was much surprised when it learned that Mr. DEPEW was the O'Shea family he ought to give up politics a director in the New Haven Company, and let God save Ireland," One might reflect The car stove problem has been settled, but the tunnel lighting has not. The New York Central management is defying the public. Punishment in this case, unless good may come of it, is useless.

The Grand Jury has the facts-let it act

SPRING DEBILITY.

How to Overcome Spring Weakness.

We are weak, nervous and run down in th Spring. We feel languid and enervated bec use on nerve-force is lessened by the Spring changes; on nerves are, therefore, weak. The blood needs to vigorating, but above all our nerve-force and nerve power, the real fire and energy of the body, require affengthening, holiding up, vitalizing. The only removy known which fulfils all these objects is Dr. Greens's Nervura. This wonderful discovery not only is the best blood in eigerator and regulator of the stomach, hver, bowels and kidning, but is the great restorer of strength to the weakened nerves. These facts reader it the surest and most effective of all remedies. It you need a Spring mediene, do not fail to get at your draggist's Dr. Greene's Nervers, the Great Nerve, Brain and Blood Invigorator. It is purely
